Personal

C. C. Taylor visited Medford on Friday.

C. L. Chelenger returned on Tuesday from the Eureka mine.

Wess Smith and Chet Moore were in from Briggs creek the first of the week.

Ed Hubbard, of Love's Station, has been spending several days in town this week.

W. J. Gohres of Kerby has been spending several days in Grants Pass this week.

Mr. Chas. Tabor and Miss Mary Brady went to Ashland Friday for a visit with friends.

O. S. Goodnow was in town this week from his mining property on upper Jump-Off-Joe.

Miss Hattie Cook left Friday morning for Portland, to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. Rae Carlon.

R. E. Gutheridge of Wedderburn, visited Grants Pass last week a delegate of the Woodmen convention and attending other business.

E. L. Musick arrived here Tuesday evening from Crescent City, on his way to Coeur-d'Alene, Idaho, where he expects to engage in teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Scott of Central Point, who have been visiting here at the home of their daughter, Mrs. M. C. H. Day, returned home on Monday.

H. C. Kinney and C. E. Harmon members of the board of regents of the Southern Oregon State Normal School, attended the annual meeting of the board at Ashland, Friday.

Nool E. Graves, C.E. of Yreka, Cal., is spending some time in Grants Pass and Josephine county. He will open a branch office in this city and will probably decide to locate permanently.

Mrs. Johnson of Waldo, and daughter, Miss Ida, were in Grants Pass this week. Miss Johnson has been attending school in Jacksonville during the school year just passed.

R. B. Whiteside of Duluth, Minn., was in town last week and went out to the mine near Kerby, which is under lease to the Whiteside Bros. They are also owners of a tract of big trees, one of the California summer resorts.

N. D. Lee arrived here Saturday from Vancouver, B. C., and is visiting with the family of his uncle, R. L. Dishrow. He arrived at Vancouver in April from his home in Montreal, Canada. He intends to make Grants Pass his home.

Miss Susie Bannard, who has been teaching in the Roseburg schools and Miss Margaret Bannard, who has been attending the state university, arrived here Saturday evening to rejoin their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. U. Bannard.

Misses Madge Marshall, Zella Harv, Frances Johnson and Katie Newell spent several days at Selma, returning the first of the week. The girls had a delightful time they say, and the Selma people think the girls could give pointers to the "pony express" riders.

M. C. Munson, the Sunday school missionary, was in town Monday night, having returned here after attending the C. E. convention at Ashland. On Tuesday, he accompanied his father, S. H. Munson of Roseburg, Miss Lydia Munson and Miss Reoch to Bybee Springs where the party will remain for some time, for the improvement of the health of the elder Mr. Munson.

GIANTS IN THESE DAYS.
E. Beaupre, the Canadian giant who passed through here a month or more ago going to San Francisco, was a passenger on Monday evening's north-bound train. As he stood in the car door, stooping down that he might see through it, he was an object of the most intense and lively curiosity on the part of the assembled crowd. Beaupre is seven feet, 10 inches in height and fairly well proportioned but his bigness gives him a rather grotesque appearance. Though not handsome, he is not ill looking and has rather a sensible expression of countenance. Beaupre was a woodchopper and pursued that vocation in the British Columbia forests until discovered and brought out into the world to pose as a freak.

GOODNOW-MOWERS WEDDING.

John Orwell Goodnow and Miss Cora May Mowers, both well known and esteemed young people of this city, were united in matrimony on Sunday evening at the A. O. U. W. hall. The wedding took place under the auspices of the W. B. C. of which organization the bride is a member. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. McDougall, and prayer was offered by Rev. Daughters. After the ceremony the guests partook of a sumptuous spread provided by the ladies of the Relief Corps. About 150 friends and members of the order were present.

REV. McLEAN WILL SPEAK.

Rev. Robert McLean will occupy the pulpit at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning. As Mr. McLean is intending to take his departure soon for Porto Rico, it is likely that this will be the last opportunity of listening to one of his sermons that Grants Pass people will have, for a long time at least.

A special song service has been arranged for the evening.

Sunday School meets at 10 a. m. There are Bible classes, young people classes, intermediate classes and a primary class. Parents are cordially invited to attend and bring the children.

NOTICE.

All who wish to unite with the Labor Union can do so on July 4th by calling at the Court house between 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. By order of A. F. of L.

Berto McLean won first Greek prize this year at the Portland Academy, from which institution he was graduated, at the commencement exercises, last Friday evening. Last year he won first prize in declamation and the preceding year the second prize in the same branch. Next year he will enter Hamilton college.

Scott Griffin, proprietor of the New Meat Market on Front Street, associated with John Barrow, an expert meat cutter, and J. L. Eastman, a first class sausage maker, is now in position to furnish all mining camps, saw mills, hotels, railroad men, and in fact, everybody in Josephine County, with the best of beef, mutton, pork, poultry, lard, and bacon at the lowest possible prices. Scott Griffin has the only exclusive lay, feed and seed store in Grants Pass, on Sixth street. Scott Griffin pays cash for lungs, cat, the hay and grain. Credit extended to regular pay day on good reference.

White Mountain Processors from two quarts to twelve quarts at Cramer Bros.

Glassware at cost at Cramer Bros.

J. W. Bailey, state dairy and food commissioner for Oregon, was in Medford Thursday of this week on duties pertaining to his office. Mr. Bailey, while crediting Rogue River valley with being the banner apple district of the coast, thinks it can be made one of the leading dairy sections of Oregon. The even climate, pure water and great abundance of feed, this being the only successful corn district and the best alfalfa land in the state, makes this valley an ideal place for handling cows profitably.—Mail.

Winchester, Marlin and Stevens rifles at Cramer Bros.

ONE SIDED GAME.

The baseball game played here Sunday between the Grants Pass and Medford teams was not a game; it was a slaughter. The Medford team was clearly outclassed from the start and before the game was half over they went to pieces completely. The Grants Pass boys showed their opponents no mercy, but piled up the runs in a manner that made the score a scandalous one. The Medford boys stayed heavily to the bitter end and accepted their fate with commendable fortitude. The score was 22 to 1 in favor of Grants Pass.

DR. ELIZA LEONARD.

All who are interested in events in China, will have a treat, in listening to Dr. Eliza Leonard tell of her experiences, as a medical missionary to China; especially interesting will be her description of the famous Siege of Peking.

This address will be free; only a free-will offering will be taken. Every one cordially invited. Tuesday July 1st, at 8 p. m. in the Presbyterian church.

LOST.

On Rogue River road, leading from Grants Pass to Lee's School House, one package containing three shirts and one piece underwear. Finder will please leave at office.

HONEST VALUES

One Hundred Cents Worth of Merchandise for 100 cents

Never since we have been in business in this city have we done so large a volume of business as this season. Merit wins—No fake sales—but the highest standard in values for the lowest price.

You will need a new outfit for the 4th of July

You want the correct thing—we have the largest assortment to be found in Southern Oregon.

The New Military Coat

seems to be a favorite and is indeed a very dressy garment. We are showing them in all the new colorings—The color apparently the favorite is the New Bottle Green.

Pantourist Hats

For a stylish shape in hats the Pantourist hold its own and sell more readily than other shapes.

Walk-Over Shoes

The Walk-Over leads 'em all. Tending toward straight lasts and lighter soles and small dressy tip—no tans—they are a dead one. More patent leather and Enamels sold this season than ever before.

Shirts

Golf! Golf! Apparently every one wants a golf shirt and no wonder—they are the embodiment of comfort for a hot summer day. COLLARS—The folded collar leads. NECKWEAR—Tans and greens lead—the narrow four-in-hand—also the reversible in same—small pinch knot.

Needles to say fancy half hose are the proper thing.

Yours truly
